

Third Party Solutions

International provider of integrated e-commerce solutions. Products include: ICINITI store, ICINITI credit card, ICINITI Order Entry. A powerful reporting and analysis spreadsheet based application that hotlinks your G/L to your reports. You can produce any report you can imagine quickly and easily; even a complete Executive Information System, with buttons, charts, and graphics. Orchid has developed a number of products for Sage Accpac ERP and CRM that extends its functionality - EFT Processing - Information Manager - Inter Entity Transactions - Process Scheduler - RMA-WMS L Service Manager is a multi award winning Service, Maintenance and Job Cost application that can help manage the resources, products and services your business provides. Offers products like Norming Asset Management, Norming Bank Security, eTimesheet (a web based job planning, time and leave tracking, expense report and billing software), Inventory Security.

MISys Manufacturing is the ideal solution for small manufacturers. It makes easy to get control of your manufacturing business by reducing your inventory, helping to get control of your production, and streamlining your production activities. It is a modular software integrated tightly with Sage Accpac ERP.

MJD Software develops and markets mobile data collection solutions for Sage Accpac ERP. MJD's wireless data platform mobilizes all internal transactions such as receiving, stock counts, transfers, adjustments, assemblies, returns, shipments, picking, packing as well as external transactions such remote sales, remote inventory control and third party inventory management LinXsoft is a solution provider developing applications that works with and expands the Sage Accpac accounting product line. They focus on Customer Relationship Management (CRM), sales automation and account receivable management. Dingosoft use the Sage Accpac SDK in order to provide tight integration, familiarity of use and ease of support for Sage Accpac users and Qualified Installers Their products are RecXpress ("the fastest way to reconcile your bank account”), Cashbook ("“the streamlined business tool that maintain your bank account and organizes cashflow”) and EFTXpress.

Edisoft enables you to process EDI transactions quickly and accurately. Integrate your customer orders, accounting system, and warehouse/shipping department.

docAssist is an online document management solution. Securely store, scan, route and access documents using a web-browser. Extend System Corporation offers internet marketing services that will help you strategically leverage your web presence as well as your sales and marketing efforts to achieve maximum results.

To find out the right solution for you send us an email and we will advice you.